

SPEAKING / WORKSHOPS / PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

Azeem Ahmad

Medical Billing & Revenue Cycle Management
Operator. Educator. Founder.

Azeem Ahmad is the Founder & CEO of Elevate Revenue Group and a medical billing instructor at Riphah International University. His work spans U.S. revenue cycle operations, billing team development, A/R, denials, credentialing and practical professional education. He began his medical billing career in 2017 and has worked independently with healthcare clients since 2018. Based in Lahore, Pakistan, he connects day-to-day billing experience with the systems and teaching that help people do the work with greater clarity.

Suggested sessions

Building high-performance medical billing teams

For billing managers and team leaders

Revenue cycle mistakes that quietly cost practices money

For practice owners, administrators, physicians and CFOs

Practical denial management

For billers, A/R specialists and operations teams

Medical billing careers in the modern healthcare economy

For students, universities and early-career professionals

Building scalable RCM operations

For founders, operators and healthcare entrepreneurs

From front desk to payment

For practice teams and healthcare learners

Using technology intelligently in billing operations

For healthcare operators and technology teams

Format and inquiry

Talks, webinars, university sessions, podcast conversations and practical workshops. Session length and depth can be adapted to the audience. Share your proposed date, format, audience and desired learning outcome.

azeemodesk@gmail.com | azeemahmad.io/speaking